► Investment Strategy

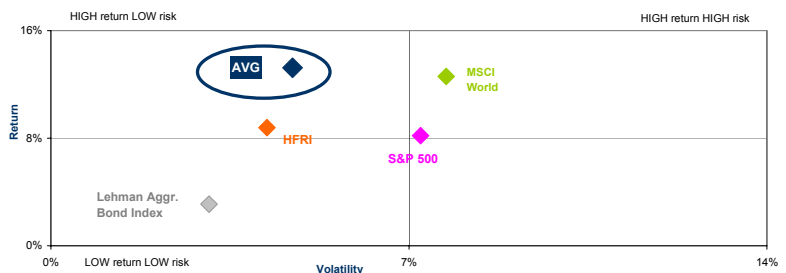

AVG is a fund of hedge funds that combines emerging markets' funds with low volatility funds based in developed markets. AVG seeks capital preservation and positive returns with low correlation with traditional equities and bonds markets. The fund will combine both directional and non-directional alternative investment strategies.

The fund's portfolio provides adequate diversification through an average number of underlying funds that will vary between 20 and 50. Many of such underlying funds are either closed or soft-closed to new investors.

► Highlights

- 50% Developed Markets, 50% Emerging Markets.
- Liquidity: Monthly NAV (monthly subscriptions and redemptions)
- No leverage used. Minimum 3% cash to meet redemptions.
- Returns in EUR. No currency risk for investments in USD.
- Registered at CNMV.
- Altex Team invests in hedge funds since 1995.

► Return-Volatility since January 2004

► Manager Comment

Altex Visión Global has performed well in October with an estimated return of +2,62%. Since inception, in April, the fund has achieved a profit of +6,57%.

All strategies have contributed with positive returns. The best performing managers have been within the emerging markets long/short strategy. Only two underlying funds have registered losses, both were also long/short.
