Comment

Fund Performance:

AVG was up an estimated +0.53% in September, +0.88% YTD. The fund's performance is gradually improving, while keeping volatility under control (2.57% over the last 12 months). Since the end of Summer, we have been increasing our exposure to Emerging Markets, using strategies with low directionality. On the upside, Global Macro, Systematic funds, Convertibles and Equity Neutral. The remaining strategies were flat except Relative Value that was slightly negative because of the long vol hedging positions we hold.

At month end we added a Convertibles manager and an Emerging Credit manager with good liquidity terms. We also increased our exposure to a fund specializing in Emerging currencies and fixed income, to a Global Macro fund, and to an Emerging Equity Directional manager. We sold our investment in a Convertibles manager.
